Joanna Stone Shield Meet

Welcome to week 8 of competition. After tonight there will be two more evenings of competition before the Christmas break. Our last night of competition for 2009 will be Friday 11th December. We will then break for the Christmas-New Year period and resume on Friday 15th January for the second half of the season.

Please DO return in January as it is the most exciting part of our season. There are a number of carnivals next year including the regional and state championships and then our end of year presentation and fun day on 11 April.

Just a reminder that there will be no training over the Christmas break, it will resume on Wednesday the 20th January.

Green McDonalds Achievement Certificates

Last week Ralph handed out quite a number of green achievement certificates to athletes in the U6, U7 and U8 age groups as well as some Jimboomba Junior Sports awards. Around 30 of these certificates were not collected – even though many of the athletes called out did actually compete last Friday. This may be because athletes arrived late or did not attend the briefing. Either way, it is a shame that they missed being presented.

This week Green Level certificates will be presented to athletes in the U9, U10 and U11 age groups. Due to the large number of athletes involved, it will only be possible to call names once. Left-over certificates will be available for collection at the canteen. If there are any queries regarding certificates, please see Peta.

Outstanding registrations

A few families are still to finalise registration payments. Can these families please visit the registration desk this evening. There is also some money outstanding for state relay nominations and state shirts. These need to be finalised ASAP.

Uniforms

A number of athletes have been competing out of uniform. Unless there are extenuating circumstances, athletes must always wear their uniforms when competing.

Browns Plains carnival this Sunday

Good luck to all athletes competing at Browns Plains this Sunday. The address is Vansittart Road Browns Plains. First events start at 8:30am so you need to arrive at around 8am to get settled and have a warm up. Bring hats and plenty of water.

Please note that it is still not too late to enter as Browns Plains will accept late entries up until 8am on Sunday for a small additional cost.
